

It's your world.

Vera Oberg

Class 2020

History &
International Affairs Major

Middle Tyger Community Center

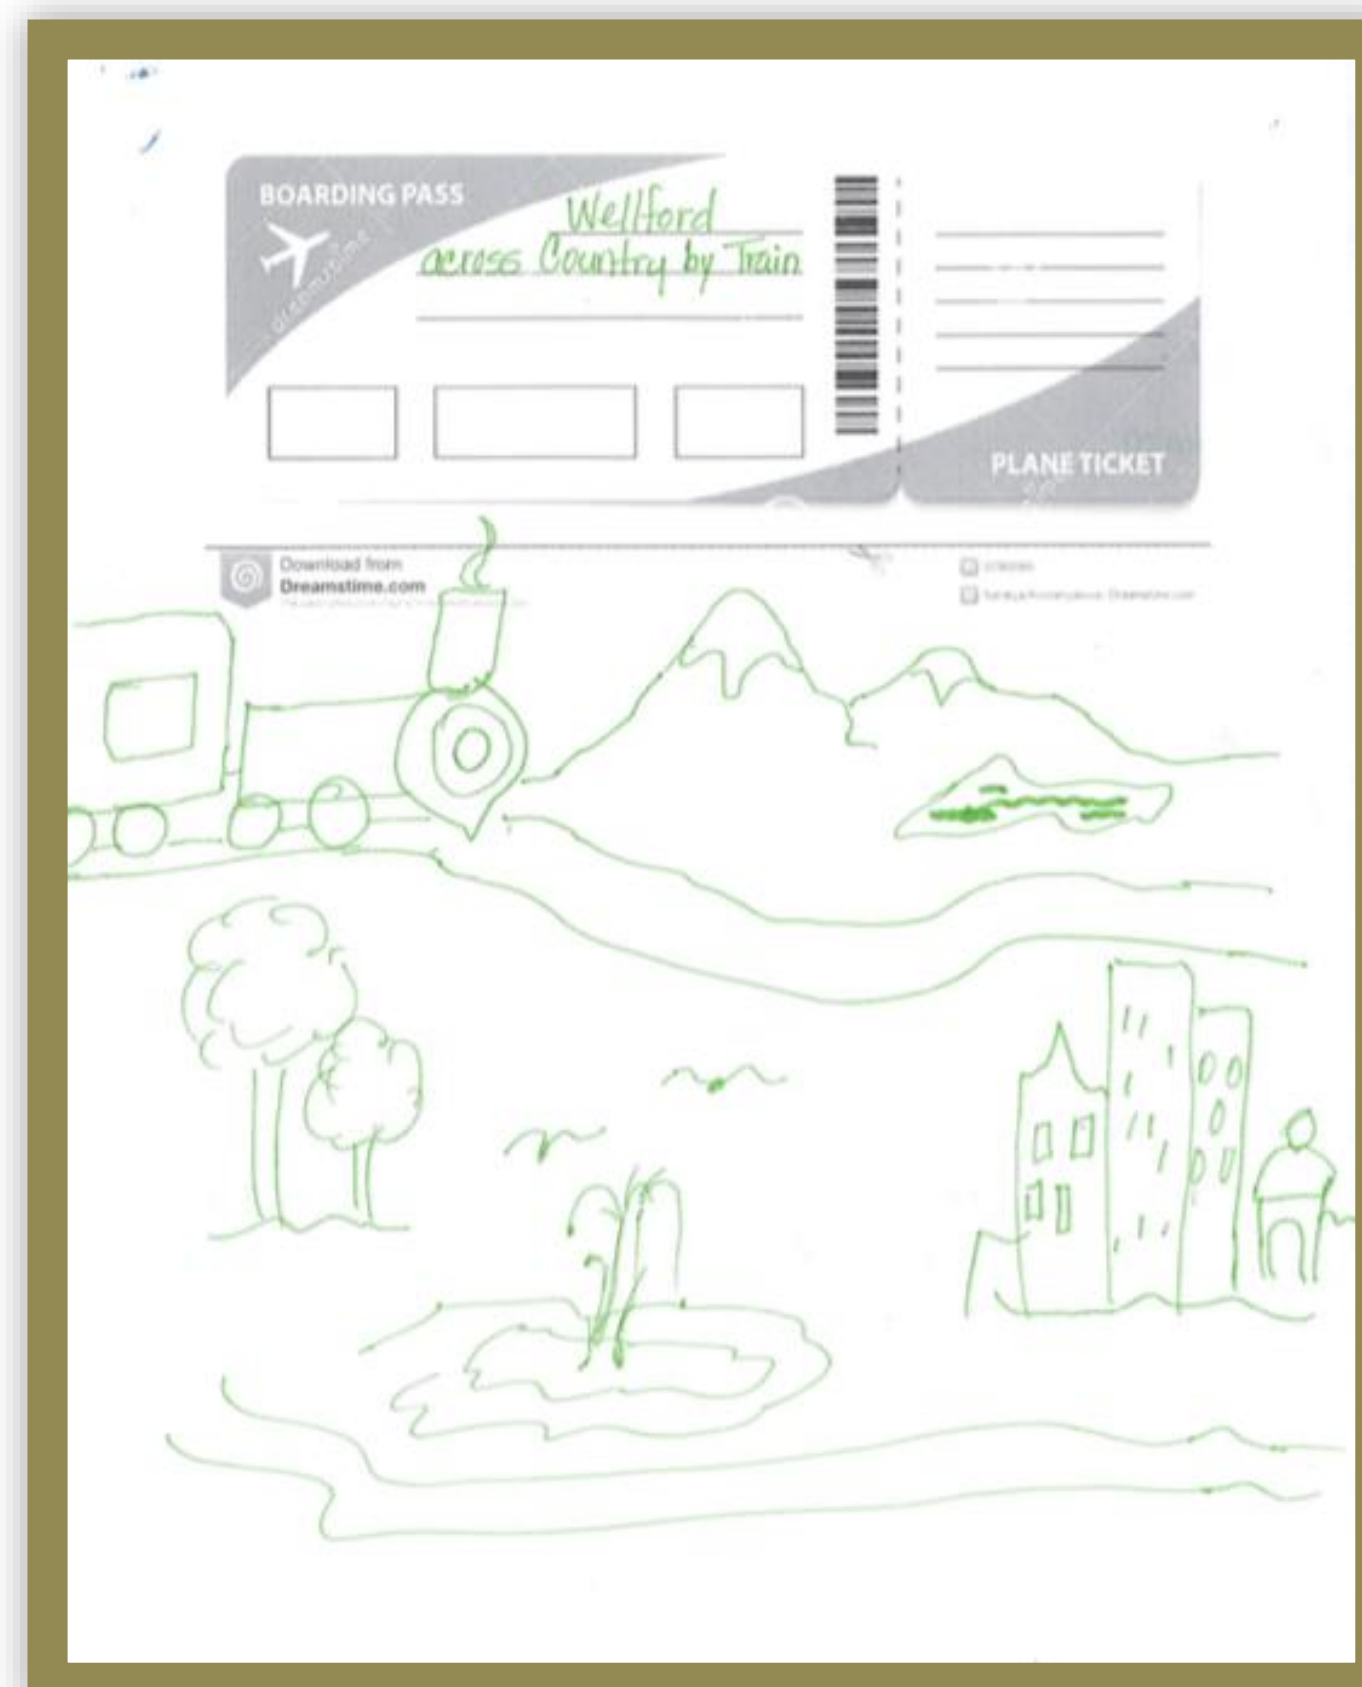

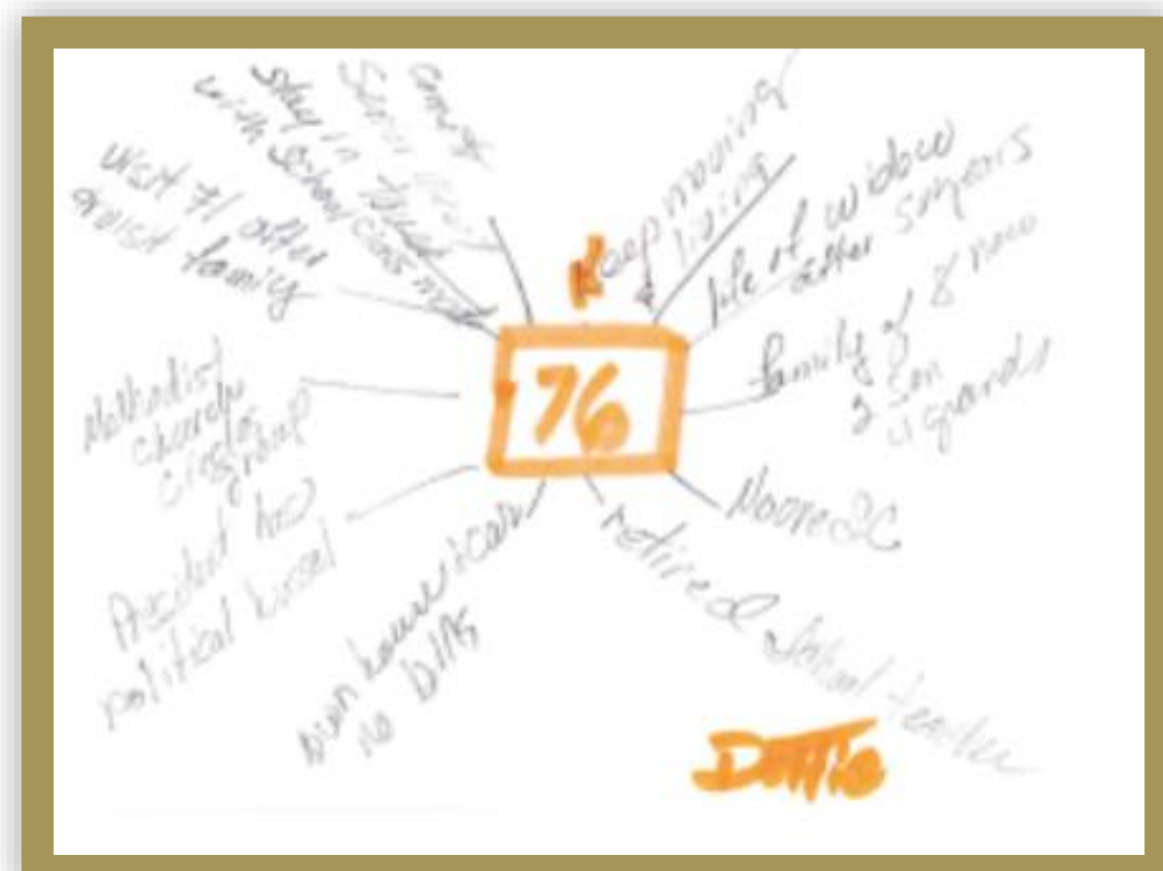

A community center in Wellford, SC.

There are between 15-17 participants each week.

I WRITE TO EASE MY MIND WHEN THOUGHTS TO UNWIND
WHAT DOES
INTERGENERATIONAL CONNECTIONS
INTERACTIONS TO IMPROVE LIVES
WHEN I TRY TO REMEMBER

Left and Above:
“Identity Card”
Each participant
picked an age when they were young
and their current age and compared
how they identified
themselves between now and then.

Left and Below: “One-Way Ticket” Participants listed all the places they had visited, then thought about what their dream destination or vacation, imagined what it looked like and
drew it or described it.

California - probably age 40, loved the different look of the land and houses, air conditioners on top, trees leaning to one side, golden color of the hills, mountains appearing out of nowhere. Night temperatures the freeways.
Travel across country - US

Above: “Then and Now”
Each participant brought baby
or youth pictures of themselves and spent the workshop figuring out whose picture was whose.